

Whether we could organize a mock parliament in every district of India? Where the youth between 18 and 25 could sit together and brain storm about new India, find ways and chalk our plans. I propose that a mock Parliament be organized around 15th August in Delhi comprising one young person selected from each district who would participate and deliberate on how a new India could be formed in the next five years.

To give shape to Prime Minister's vision of organizing youth parliaments in all parts of the country, Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs has developed a web portal on Youth Parliament, with the aim of spreading spirit of democracy to every nook and corner of the country.

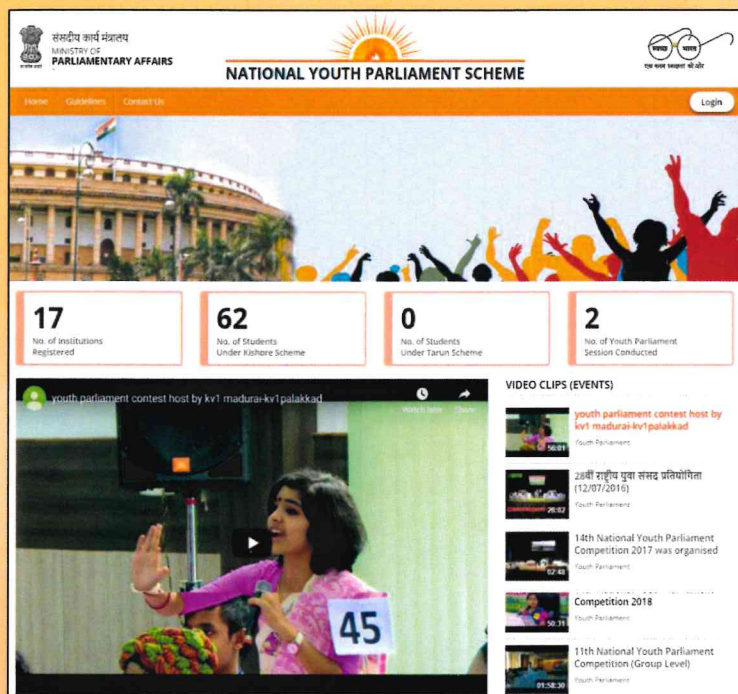

In order to develop democratic ethos amongst the younger generation, the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs has been implementing Youth Parliament programme since 1966 in Schools under the Directorate of Education, Government of NCT of Delhi and NDMC, Kendriya Vidyalayas, Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalayas and Universities/ Colleges. So far, around 8000 educational institutions and more than 4,00,000 students have been covered under the Youth Parliament programme of the Ministry.
